PRODUCER / WRITER / PHOTOGRAPHER

ABOUT

TANYA ROLOFF

BIO

Tanya Roloff is an award-winning Producer, Writer and Photographer.

She is telling stories to expand the vision, financial resources and influence of an organization or a business.

Roloff has made over 60 international trips around the world to bring awareness of global poverty and hunger and raise funds for the ongoing humanitarian work through photography, videos and writing. Her fundraising television programs aired on FOX, Fox Family, BET, Lifetime and other major international networks, raising millions of dollars and helping countless amounts of people in need.

As a Marketing and Creative Director, she helped lead company FitCamp 180 to the status of one of the largest, most popular and award-winning fitness boot camps in Oklahoma City, producing content for social media, web and print.

A photograph of two women standing outdoors. The woman on the left is a Maasai, wearing a blue headscarf, a red and black patterned shuka, and multiple necklaces of colorful beads and metal discs. She is smiling warmly. The woman on the right is a white woman wearing a grey baseball cap, a bright yellow-green long-sleeved shirt, and a dark brown scarf. She is also smiling. The background is a blurred natural setting with a corrugated metal roof visible on the right.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 30 DAYS

WRITING

Despite meeting MANY amazing children and families on my travels for Feed the Children, there's always that "one" who sticks with you forever. Just one week into my #aroundtheworldin30days tour, I met the "one" in a remote village in Uganda. His name is Daniel. And he is the embodiment of why the work of Feed the Children must continue!

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL: IMPRESSIONS

WRITING

In our social-media, digitally-obsessed world, there's no lack of opportunity of getting seen or heard. Countless times throughout the day we can post about every aspect of our lives and get a response. But not everyone has this opportunity.
