

TANYA ROLOFF

PRODUCER / WRITER / PHOTOGRAPHER

INTRODUCTION

There are over a million miles under my belt traveling the world to collect stories, interviews, footage and photographs of people struggling with hunger, poverty, AIDS, war and disasters to bring awareness, funds, resources, and subsequent change to communities, causes, and people in need.

There isn't a place I won't go to capture and tell a powerful story of those who've lost everything, and the unfortunate who never even had anything to lose.

ABOUT

BIO

Tanya Roloff is an award-winning Producer, Writer and Photographer. She is telling stories to expand the vision, financial resources and influence of an organization or a business. She travels to the poorest and most conflicted countries in the world finding stories, writing and producing TV spots and multi-channel content to bring awareness of global poverty and hunger and raise funds for the ongoing humanitarian work. Her fundraising television programs aired on FOX, Fox Family, BET, Lifetime and other major international networks, raising millions of dollars and helping countless amounts of people in need.

A woman wearing a white baseball cap, a blue denim shirt, and brown pants is sitting on the ground, holding a black DSLR camera and taking a photograph. She is wearing black boots. In front of her, a man and a young child are sitting on the ground. The man is wearing a white tank top and dark pants, and the child is wearing a white shirt and dark pants. They are both looking towards the camera. The background is a dirt ground with some scattered debris.

A photograph of two women standing outdoors. The woman on the left is a Maasai, wearing a blue headscarf, a red and black patterned shuka, and multiple necklaces of colorful beads and metal discs. She is smiling warmly. The woman on the right is a white woman wearing a grey baseball cap, a bright yellow-green long-sleeved shirt, and a dark brown scarf. She is also smiling. The background is a blurred natural setting with a corrugated metal roof visible on the right.

AROUND THE WORLD IN 30 DAYS

WRITING

Despite meeting MANY amazing children and families on my travels for Feed the Children, there's always that "one" who sticks with you forever. Just one week into my #aroundtheworldin30days tour, I met the "one" in a remote village in Uganda. His name is Daniel. And he is the embodiment of why the work of Feed the Children must continue!

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL: IMPRESSIONS

WRITING

In our social-media, digitally-obsessed world, there's no lack of opportunity of getting seen or heard. Countless times throughout the day we can post about every aspect of our lives and get a response. But not everyone has this opportunity.
